RE: MUR 6091

Dear Mr. Jordan:

This letter responds to your letter dated October 14, 2008 and received October 20, 2008, which followed a complaint filed by counsel for the Virginia Foxx campaign on October 8, 2008. Virginia Foxx is the Republican candidate for Congress in the 5th District of North Carolina.

The complaint alleges that Bully Documentary Incorporated and Frank Eaton produced a campaign commercial during the Primary season, which was subsequently posted on YouTube May 3-5, 2008. The complaint further alleges that the Carter Campaign failed to report this in-kind donation in its July Quarterly Report.

Bully Documentary Incorporated did not contribute its time or finances to the Roy Carter for Congress primary campaign. Frank Eaton in his personal capacity, as a volunteer for the campaign, produced the video. This contribution equaled five hundred dollars ($500.00). The estimated amount for the in-kind contribution was determined by analyzing the market-rate for television advertisement production offers by Time-Warner Cable and Spotrunner.com during the time in question. As you well know, the space provided by YouTube is free and cost nothing to post.

The Roy Carter for Congress campaign issued an amendment to the May report in early October reflecting the in-kind contribution of $500.00 from Frank Eaton. This amount is well within Mr. Eaton's campaign contribution limits.
